No. CR 09-1006

ORDER REGARDING MAGISTRATE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
CONCERNING DEFENDANT'S
GUILTY PLEA

---

I. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

On April 8, 2009, a one-count Indictment was returned against the defendant Timothy J. Lange. On May 13, 2009, the defendant appeared before United States Magistrate Judge Jon S. Scoles and entered a plea of guilty to Count 1 of the Indictment. On May 13, 2009, Judge Scoles filed a Report and Recommendation in which he recommended that defendant's guilty plea be accepted. On May 27, 2009, Defendant filed objections to Judge Scoles' Report and Recommendation. On May 27, 2009, Defendant filed a motion to withdraw his objections and the court granted defendant's motion on May 28, 2009. The court, therefore, undertakes the necessary review of Judge Scoles' recommendation to accept defendant's plea in this case.

II. ANALYSIS

Pursuant to statute, this court's standard of review for a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation is as follows:

A judge of the court shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made. A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate [judge].

28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Similarly, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b) provides for review of a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation on dispositive motions and prisoner petitions, where objections are made, as follows:

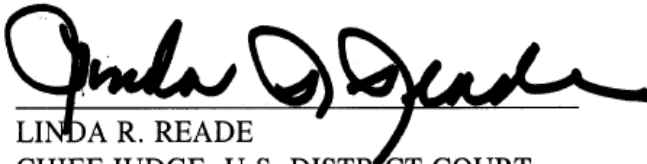

The district judge to whom the case is assigned shall make a de novo determination upon the record, or after additional evidence, of any portion of the magistrate judge's disposition to which specific written objection has been made in accordance with this rule. The district judge may accept, reject, or modify the recommended decision, receive further evidence, or recommit the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b).

In this case, the objections have been withdrawn, and it appears to the court upon review of Judge Scoles' findings and conclusions, that there is no ground to reject or modify them. Therefore, the court accepts Judge Scoles' Report and Recommendation of May 13, 2009, and accepts defendant's plea of guilty in this case to Count 1 of the Indictment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 28th day of May, 2009.
